

DEPARTMENT OF PSYCHOLOGY

REQUIREMENTS FOR A MINOR IN PSYCHOLOGY

Many students take a psychology minor with a major in another field. A psychology minor combines well with a number of majors including: business, management, sociology, criminal justice, computer science, speech, communications, social work, industrial engineering, and journalism.

The basic requirements for a psychology minor is 18 credits of psychology course work at NMSU with a grade of "C" or better, with half of the credits being in the upper-division.

TO THE STUDENT: When you enter your senior year, complete the application below and bring it, as well as a copy of your unofficial transcript to the Department of Psychology, Science Hall, Rm 220, for approval. It will then be forwarded to your college.

TO Head, Department of _____ (Your Major)

AND Dean, College of _____ (Name of your College)

Student Name: _____ Aggie ID# _____

Psychology Courses	Credits	Grade	Semester/Year

_____ Date:
Dom Simon, Department of Psychology